Messages: means Company feature which allows The End-User to enable voice or SMS messages from/to mobiles and landlines.

Software / Solution: means the software or solution distributed by Company for internet communications / VoIP communication, enabling their End-User to use the Service, including without limitation any subsequent programming fixes, updates, upgrades and new versions of such software / solution provided by Company.

1.2. Scope

This Agreement specifies the rights and responsibilities of BICS and the End-User regarding the provision and the use of the Service that BICS provides on its own or in collaboration with Company or a third party according to the National regulations in the respective country, where Company requested a Number from BICS for End-User on his behalf.

* actions provided for in this Agreement (i.e., ordering Number(s), porting out Number(s), providing End-User Data to BICS, etc.)

2. Term, Suspension, and Termination

2.1. Term

This Agreement takes effect on the date of acceptance by End-User of the telecommunication services thereof by clicking on the accept button or similar buttons or links or by providing a Letter of Authorization (LOA), as may be designated by Company or the date of first use of the Service by the End-User, whichever occurs earlier, and will remain effective until the end of the term for the Service as defined in Article 3, unless terminated by either BICS, Company or the End-User as set out below.

2.2. Suspension and Termination by BICS

Without limiting other remedies, and without being liable for the consequences thereof, BICS or its Affiliates may suspend or terminate the Agreement in whole or in part or any Service or any part thereof automatically, with immediate effect and without recourse to the courts if:

- a. A request for such suspension or termination was made by an administrative or law enforcement agency, or local regulatory authority, or a court with lawful mandate; or
- b. BICS is of the opinion that the End-User is in breach of these Agreement or fails to comply with any reasonable requirements of BICS in relation to the use of the Service; or
- c. BICS ceases to make the Service or any part thereof available for any reason; or
- d. BICS is unable to continue the Service due to a change in regulations affecting the Service; or
- e. Any agreement between Company and BICS is terminated relating to the provision of the Service; or
- f. The End-User has acted against the law or have been held civilly liable for any matter; or
- g. The End-User has infringed the honour, credibility, or any other just interest of the BICS or Company or other users or third party; or
- h. The End-User has participated in fraudulent, immoral or illegal activities; or
- i. There is fraud, misuse, or unauthorized use of the Service by any person, regardless of whether the End-User has consented to or had knowledge of such fraud, misuse or unauthorized use; or
- j. The End-User has infringed the intellectual property rights' of a Company or any third party; or
- k. for other similar reasons.

BICS shall terminate this Agreement by preventing Company to provision Numbers on MyNumber Portal/API's, for End-User.

2.3. Termination by the End-User

Company may on behalf of the End-User, request termination of the Agreement at any time and for any reason, and BICS shall take immediate steps to comply with such request unless there is any unsettled liability or any legal obstruction.

2.4. Consequences of Termination

Upon termination of the Agreement for any reason, all licenses, and rights to use a Number and the Service shall terminate and the End-User will cease any and all use thereof.

2.5. Continuation of obligations

All provisions that are intended to carry on by virtue of their context will be continued beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement, including and without being limited to all obligations concerning the End-User representations, warranties, and indemnification obligations.

3. Service description and features/Numbering Resources

3.1. Allocation of the Number

If the End-User is eligible for a Number, BICS will allocate it to the End-User as soon as reasonably possible after the receipt of the End-User request by Company. Numbers made available to the End-User for use, are provided without charge by BICS to the End-User, although the End-User will be charged by Company as part of its Software / Solution Terms & Conditions.

If a Number is allocated to the End-User by BICS, on request of the End-User or on request of Company on behalf on End-User, the right to use that Number and the cancellation of such right will be exercised by BICS or Company respectively at his sole discretion - additional Company Terms of Use will apply in such circumstances.

3.2 No guarantee

BICS shall endeavour to allocate the Number and enable the End-User to be called on this number by Mobile and landlines Users, or to use the End-User's Number for the purposes of Company Software / Solution, as applicable and technically possible. However, BICS cannot guarantee that the requested Number(s) can be allocated or assigned to the End-User, or that the End-User can make use of Service.

3.3 Refusal, change, withdrawal or reallocation of Numbers.

Without any liability to the End-User, BICS reserves the right to refuse, withdraw, change or reallocate such Number at any time for any reason, subject to contrary directions by the relevant authority and any contrary terms contained in BICS's telecommunications licence.

In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, BICS reserves the right to immediately withdraw the Number should the End-User violate the law, or the terms of this Agreement, or the instructions given by BICS and/or Company, the requirement accurately to verify the area of the End-User residency (see Article 4.2) or the requirements of the relevant national number plan or it is deemed necessary by BICS for the operation of Service.

In case BICS changes the Number allocated or assigned to the End-User, the End-User will be notified of the effective date of such change and a new Number by Company. If the End-User do not want to accept the new Number, the End-User can revoke its Number with a notification to Company in writing or by email according the Company Terms of Use.

3.4 Portability

In accordance with the provisions of the applicable regulations, the End-User has the right to keep its Numbers when changing telephony operators and as such port its Number to another telephone operator by sending a request to this effect to the telephone operator of End-User choice. Company, on behalf of the End-User, can initiate a port-in for the End-User's Number. To port out the End-User Number, The End-User new Service Provider can initiate the port-out request.

3.5 No rights in Number

The End-User will not acquire any rights in any Number allocated or assigned to the End-User. The End-User acknowledge and understand that the provision of the Service and allocation of Number hereunder does not in any way imply or constitute any transfer of intellectual property rights with regard to the Number or Service. The End-User may not transfer or collateralize the Number assigned to the End-User by BICS or someone designated by BICS to a third party without the BICS's prior written approval.

3.6 Voice or SMS messages

In case Voice and/or SMS messages is offered in connection with Service hereunder, the End-User acknowledge and agree that such product is provided by Company, and that the End-User must accept and agree to Company Terms of Use for the End-User right to use Voice and/or SMS messages.

4. Obligations

4.1. Use of the Service

the End-User agree to use the Service in accordance with this Agreement and applicable and relevant legislation, in particular but not limited, regarding residency and geographical usage restrictions that may apply from time-to-time.

In the absence of any error by BICS, the End-User is solely responsible for the use of the Service, as well as for all consequences, notably financial, resulting from it. In particular, the End-User must ensure that no one has access to the Service without its authorization and ensure the confidentiality of its Username and its Password.

In addition, the End-User guarantee that they will comply with any reasonable instructions given by BICS or Company with regard to the use of the Numbers and that the End-User will comply with the requirements of the relevant national numbering plan. the End-User cannot use the Service to receive reverse-charge or collect calls.

4.2. Data

The End-User or Company will be required to provide BICS in good time with any Data or information necessary for a proper provision of the Service. In particular, the End-User agree to provide true, accurate, complete and up to date information with regard to the End-User's place of residence and its use of the Number, and all such other information necessary in respect of the provisions of the national numbering plan as may reasonably be required from time-to-time by BICS.

Upon requesting a Number, the End-User will be required to self-verify that the End-User is resident in the area matching the geographical-prefix of Number the End-User select, before any Number can be allocated to the End-User. The same logic is applied, upon request for any other Number Type (Mobile, Toll-Free, ...) that would be allocated to the End-User.

Consequently, the End-User or Company must inform BICS immediately of any change to this Data, notably any change to bank or address details. Otherwise, the Service will not be activated, or, in the case of changes to details not being communicated, BICS may suspend the End-User access to the Service in accordance with article 2.2.

4.3. No Transfer and No Assignment by the End-User

The End-User is not authorized to neither transfer nor assign this Agreement, or any rights hereunder, to any third party.

4.4. Prohibition of Resale

The End-User agree not to resell and lease the Service to any third party and shall be solely responsible for any consequence of such unauthorized commercial activity. Additionally, if BICS has suffered a loss or damage as a result of unauthorized commercial activities on the End-User's part, the End-User has the responsibility to indemnify BICS for damage, and BICS can seek compensation through legal procedures in addition to suspending the End-User Service.

4.5. Lawful Purposes

The End-User shall comply with the national law, other applicable law and the reasonable instructions of BICS relating its use of the Service.

The End-User acknowledge and agree to use the Number and Service solely for lawful purposes so as not to breach public order and good moral standards or the rights of third parties. In this respect the End-User is prohibited, without limitation, to use its Account, Number or Service for any improper, immoral, defamatory or fraudulent purpose or for any unsolicited advertising messages or promotions nor allow others to do so, or get involved in any unwanted profane, offensive, obscene or sexual exchanges or to attempt to harm a young person in any way. The End-User shall also not act in such a way that the operation of other lawful telecommunications services or equipment or the provision of Service will be jeopardized or impaired.

4.6. Indemnity

The End-User agree to indemnify, defend, and hold BICS and its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents or sub-contractors harmless from against any and all third-party claims, actions, proceedings and costs, including but not limited to reasonable legal' s fees, incurred by BICS arising out of or relating to any inaccurate or incomplete Data provided by the End-User hereunder, its violation of the instructions given by BICS or Company, including instruction related to the requirements of the relevant national numbering plan, its violation of the Agreement, applicable law or rights of any third parties and/or the misuse of the Number or Service.

The End-User also agree to indemnify BICS for the general damage inflicted by the End-User knowingly or negligently on BICS.

5. Billing and Payment Policy

The service BICS is offering to the End-User, is agreed by the End-User by accepting Company's service plan, service plan payment and Terms and conditions.

6. Privacy, End-User Data and Technical information

6.1. Privacy Policies

The Data that the End-User provide when the End-User purchase the Number Service from Company is intended for BICS and Company, which are responsible for its processing. Company declaration of respect for privacy applies to the processing of the End-User Data by Company. The following terms apply to the processing of the End-User Data by BICS.

BICS will only process the End-User Data in order to provide the End-User with the Service, enhance and optimize its quality, comply with its legal and regulatory obligations in the respective country, inform the End-User of information relating to Service, and, if the End-User have given its express consent, inform the End-User of any commercial offers that might interest the End-User. For these purposes, the End-User agree for its Data to be stored, processed, and transferred by BICS to its subcontractors, which can only access the End-User Data in order to fulfil certain duties that are indispensable to providing the local service, in strict respect of the End-User rights in terms of personal data protection. The End-User also agree that all information concerning the End-User may be communicated to the competent authorities as part of a judicial or administrative investigation, in respect of laws and procedures. Finally, the End-User agree for its Data to be transferred to Company, in respect of its declaration of respect for privacy.

BICS' privacy policy is drafted in accordance with the applicable legislation concerning the End-User personal data and the use thereof, and more specifically in accordance with Belgian and European law. BICS' privacy policy is available on <https://www.bics.com/privacy-policy/>

6.2. Security Measures

BICS has implemented the industry standards security measures legally required for processing and retention of Data. BICS also has implemented all technical measures and means available, with a view to preventing the loss, inappropriate use, alteration, unauthorized access, or theft of this Data. However, the End-User understand and acknowledge that these measures cannot avert all risks.

6.3. Compensation

Neither BICS nor Company may be held responsible for any damages incurred by the End-User or by anyone else as a result of any inaccuracies in Data communicated by the End-User or Company, or due to any breach on the End-User part of instructions given by BICS or Company, or more generally due to any breach of this Agreement, current laws, or the rights of third parties.

6.4. Rights

The End-User have the right to access, correct, restrict, delete and object to the processing of the End-User Data held by BICS, according to BICS' privacy policy and the Company Terms of Use .

BICS will respond, within a reasonable period of time, and as far as possible, to any request made by the End-User or Company in relation to the processing of the End-User Data, and to grant the End-User the above-mentioned right, in accordance with the applicable European and national regulations.

7. Exclusions of Warranties and Liabilities

7.1. No Liability for Content

The End-User acknowledge and understand that BICS does not control, or have any knowledge of, the content of any communication(s) received by the use of Service. The content of the communication is entirely the responsibility of the person from whom such content originated. Therefore, the End-User may be exposed to content that is offensive, illegal, harmful to minors, indecent or otherwise objectionable.
